Dear Adam Schwartz,

We are proud to inform you that Company Havanabama: Bridging the Gulf has been accepted to screen at the 15th annual Sidewalk Film Festival! Your film is an early selection and we ask that you please not publicly announce that it has been chosen as a Sidewalk 2013 Official Selection until on or after July 17th.

If you haven't been before, we strongly encourage you to join us for the festival. If you like anything having to do with filmmaking (and of course you do) we can personally guarantee you will have blast. Sidewalk is designed with networking as one of its core goals, so there are constant opportunities to make connections with other filmmakers. There are parties every night and our hospitality team will make sure that you are very well taken care of during your stay. A little more on the festivities is included in the filmmaker welcome package, which will also be emailed to you.

You won't want to miss the festival that many filmmakers compare to summer camp (without the canoeing). In addition to a jam-packed weekend of incredible films and panels, you'll experience Sidewalk's world-famous parties: Thursday's Filmmaker Reception, Friday's Filmmaker Retreat and Opening Night festivities, Saturday's awesome late night party, and Sunday's Awards Show.

Congratulations again, and we hope to see you at Sidewalk in August!
